Rob:

Attached are the documents at issue, produced as confidential under the Protective Order.

The motion is being filed now.

We met and conferred extensively. Rimini has flatly refused to take forensic images. If Rimini were to change its position, we would consider withdrawing the motion.

Subject: Oracle v. Rimini St.

Kieran,

I write to address the SAP/TommorowNow documents you mentioned during this afternoon's meet-and confer. Though these documents have never been produced to Rimini Street, my understanding is that Oracle intends to rely on such documents in its forthcoming motion on forensic preservation. Rimini Street objects to such reliance as it has never had the opportunity to review such documents and the parties have not met and conferred in connection with the same. Given this failure to meet-and-confer, Rimini proposes that the documents be produced immediately and that Oracle agree it will not file its motion until the parties can complete the meet-and-confer process.

Thanks, Rob
